The Galatorg Empire guild in Guild Wars 2 was created Aug 26, 2012 and recruitment started on August 28, 2012 (release day). ♦We are on the Sorrow's Furnace server if you would like to join us. ♦My main character's name is "Xonox of Galatorg". ♦We are just a casual social guild that plays all aspects of the game. ♦Part of our goal is to offer extra help to get people though the PvE portion and down the line when we get more active members we will get some events together and do more as a group. ♦Forums have been installed, make suggestions on there. ♦We will also be working to offer as many of the guild buffs as possible. ♦We have no requirements, you are welcome to represent whenever you want to get the bonuses and earn us influence to buy those bonuses. ♦We currently have a 50 slot guild bank with various♦leveling♦gear and a guild emblem. ♦We will be getting a guild armorer next and then working on the economy branch of guild upgrades. ♦In the meantime, this site will be undergoing construction to get it all in order.
